- Conservatee was Petitioner's sister and the last survivor of Petitioner's family. After her death, Petitioner became despondent and was not able to address the myriad of details associated with the termination of the conservatorship and the probate of the Conservatee's estate.
- At hearing on the accounting on 3-8-11, Attorney Janet Wright appeared on behalf of Mrs. Elaine Cloud and informed the Court that her client had filed for legal separation from Petitioner and Mrs. Cloud wanted to be sure that Petitioner was not waiving certain rights to monies owed by the conservatorship estate to Petitioner. (He has not.)
- At a subsequent hearing, Attorney Joanne Sanoian appeared on behalf of Steven Cloud, Jr., who is a beneficiary of the probate estate, and stated that her client might retain a forensic accountant in this matter.
- Due to Petitioner's pending divorce proceedings, and the result of the work of a forensic accountant in that matter, continuance was granted because such work might answer some of Steven Cloud, Jr.'s questions.
- Because the additional information from other sources developed slowly, on 6-21-12, the Court dismissed the accounting petition with instructions to re-file. Petitioner has now incorporated the information which was made available from review of information in the family law proceeding.
- Since Conservatee's death (DOD: 4-19-04), Petitioner has used his own funds to pay expenses of the estate.
- During the existence of the conservatorship estate, it was common practice for the conservators to directly pay the obligations of the conservatorship estate with the expectation of repayment. In addition, the trustee of certain irrevocable trusts created FBO the Conservatee's nephews, who are the ultimate beneficiaries of the conservatorship estate, advanced the Conservatorship Estate monies to pay the state and federal taxes due at the Conservatee's death.
- To the best of Petitioner's knowledge, all intra-family transactions are accounted for in this accounting. Many of these transactions occurred prior to the Conservatee's death. As a result, the Conservatorship Estate consists of monies payable to the Conservatorship Estate by Petitioner and by closely held businesses of which Conservatee was a co-owner or co-shareholder. These monies payable are set forth in Schedule E on Exhibit B. In addition, there is an obligation that the Conservatorship Estate owes to the irrevocable trusts for the nephews.
- The beneficiaries of the Conservatee's probate estate will be two testamentary trusts created under the Conservatee's will. This Final Account shows distribution of approx. $1,779,985.14 to the trustee of the trusts, which was made in part to repay the trusts for the monies the trusts advanced to pay the Conservatee's estate taxes. On or about 6-27-11, the trustee returned the distributions.
- Petitioner has filed a corrected I&A in this Conservatorship Estate matter, removing an asset that was mistakenly included twice on prior inventories.
- Petitioner was appointed Executor of the Estate of Rhonda Jane Cloud on 8-29-06 in 06CEPR00786.

NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS (Continued):

5. Aside from the $28,013.67 in disbursements presented in this accounting, an additional $17,232.00 was disbursed ($1,436/month) to "VA-approved account for use by Conservatee." The Court may require conservatorship accountings to include disbursements from this account. The Court may also require clarification regarding the numerous $25 wire transfer fees that appear to be associated with this monthly transfer.
6. The disbursements schedule indicates DMV registration fees; however, the conservatorship estate does not appear to contain a vehicle. Need clarification.
7. The disbursements schedule indicates numerous blank/unspecified line items. The Court may require clarification.
8. The disbursements schedule indicates payment to Attorney Krbechek of $392.50. However, there does not appear to be a Court order for this amount, or itemization if these were appropriate costs pursuant to Local Rules. Need clarification.
9. Neither Attorney Krbechek's "First Accounting for Period Ending August 31, 2012" filed 9-25-12 nor the Conservator's Declaration filed 1-4-13 appears to contain a prayer with reference to this accounting. The Court may require clarification and further accountings to be presented appropriately to this Court in petition form pursuant to applicable Probate Code.

If this accounting is approved as presented, need order.

Note: If approved, the Court will set status hearing for the filing of the next accounting as follows:

- Friday 12-13-13 if a one-year account is required

OR

- Friday 12-12-14 if a two-year account is required

(Please note that these potential dates are status dates only. When the petition is filed, a new date will be assigned.)

Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (Prob. C. 1510)

"Laycee" Age: 9		TEMPORARY EXPIRES 2-11-13	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:  1. If notice is not dispensed, need notice to paternal grandparents per § 1511.
		BEVERLY and ALEXANDER FRANK , Maternal Grandmother and Step-Grandfather, are Petitioners.  Father: JOHN MICHAEL DEAN REAGAN - Notice dispensed per Minute Order 1-2-13  Mother: SHEILA MARIE JONES - Personally served 1-4-13  Paternal Grandfather: Unknown Paternal Grandmother: Unknown Maternal Grandfather: Ron Jones - Served by mail 12-14-12  Petitioners state Laycee has been with them since Thanksgiving. The mother was evicted from her residence. Petitioners believe the father is John Michael Dean Reagan, but the only information they have is that he was in prison in Oregon for child molesting; his current whereabouts unknown. He has never been present.  Petitioners state that on 11-22-12, they went to the apartment where the mother (42) and her boyfriend Mike (19) and Laycee were. There was also another man Bob (older) present. It appeared the mother and her boyfriend were under the influence of methamphetamines that day and had been using for a period of time. Both were passed out. Petitioners took Laycee home with them. Petitioners are also concerned that the mother is exposing Laycee to "adult things."  Petitioners state Laycee has been in the home-schooling program since the mother could not get her to school on time this year, but is weeks behind, and the mother missed the last three meetings with the program. Since she's been with Petitioners, Laycee is back on a regular schedule.  Laycee is often left to fend for herself when in her mother's care and the mother does not keep a clean home. Petitioners state Laycee needs medical and dental attention, but her mother did nothing about her complaints.  Court Investigator Jo Ann Morris filed a report on 2-1-13.
